

The second reading of Bill C-571, An Act to amend the Meat Inspection Act and the Safe Food for Canadians Act (slaughter of equines for human consumption), was debated again on May 13 and voted on May 14. It was defeated, receiving 102 votes in favor to 155 against.

This bill was anti-slaughter and would have had detrimental effects on horses and the horse industry.